(805) 884-9937 FAX

Description: Founded in 1968 by Eunice Kennedy Shriver, Special Olympics provides year-round sports training and competition for children and adults with mental retardation. Special Olympics has been in existence here in Santa Barbara since 1969. The purpose of Santa Barbara Special Olympics is to provide Olympic type training and competition to individuals with mental retardation. There is never a fee charged to participants. All coaches serve in a volunteer capacity. Athletic training and competitions are currently given in the following sports: softball, basketball, bowling, floor hockey, power lifting, swimming, soccer, volleyball, tennis and track and field. The Special Olympics motto is "Training for Life," because the experience of training and competing gives athletes more than just physical conditioning. Program also gives athletes greater confidence, better socialization skills and the experience of being out in the world as a contributing member of society.

Description: Provides sports training and competition for developmentally disabled youth and adults from ages 8 and up. The disabled population is in need of enhancing their lives through sports and recreation, however that opportunity is not readily available due to limited access in the community. Special Olympics was developed to provide this opportunity by adapting the activities offered to the community in general. Special Olympics athletes can be challenged while making success attainable. Special Olympics has been in existence for 30 years and has grown larger every year. The athletes gain self-esteem, social and physical skills through this program which makes for a positive life for themselves and their community.
